

EI Caspian Public University
Caspian International School of Medicine

Approved by
Vice-Director for AaSA
Zholdybaeva A.A.
"26" 08 2021.

Regulations on the Sports Club of the Caspian
International School of Medicine

Almaty, 2021

1. General provisions

1.1 The Sports Club, together with the Department for Work with Students, carries out comprehensive activities for the development of physical culture and sports among students and teachers and staff of the Caspian International School of Medicine (hereinafter - CISM) on a democratic basis in conditions of creative initiative and amateur activity.

1.2 The members of the sports club can be students, teachers and employees of the administration staff, and everyone who wants to engage in sports sections, health groups and national teams.

1.3 The head of the sports club is appointed by the decision of the Council of the CISM on the recommendation of the Department for Work with Students.

1.4. The sports club actively participates in the social life of the university, educates the members of the circle a responsible attitude to a healthy lifestyle.

1.5. The sports Club of the School of Medicine is not a legal entity, does not have an independent balance sheet, its own accounts, cannot acquire property and non-property rights and obligations on its own behalf.

1.3. In its activities, the sports club of the CISM is guided by the academic policy of the University, the Regulations of the CISM, the Regulations of the Student Council of the CISM, this Regulation and other local regulations of the School of Medicine.

1.4. The CISM Sports Club operates on the basis of the principles of voluntariness, transparency and equality of participants.

2. Goals and objectives of the CISM Sports Club

2.1. The main objectives of the sports club of the School of Medicine are:

- implementation of comprehensive activities for the development of physical culture and sports, among students, teachers and administration staff;
- creation of an effective system of sports and recreational activities at the university;
- promotion of a healthy lifestyle.

2.2. Tasks of the sports club:

- holding competitions in various sports and other events inside the school;
- organization of sports sections on gaming and other sports based on the existing educational and material base of the university;
- providing methodological and practical assistance to institutes in organizing and conducting various sports and recreational activities;
- formation of national teams of the university in various competitions and sports competitions outside the university;
- development of regulations and rules for intra-university tournaments, competitions.

3. Functions of the CISM Sports Club

3.1. The Sports Club carries out its work in direct contact with the Council of the CISM and performs the following functions:

- implements the introduction of physical culture and sports in educational activities, everyday life and recreation of students, teachers and employees of administration;
- promotion of a healthy lifestyle;
- develops knowledge and skills of personal and public hygiene, self-control, primary care;
- fights to overcome bad habits;
- carries out work on preparation for the implementation by members of the standards of the complex of mass sports events;
- fully develops social principles in health-improving, physical culture, mass and sports work;
- develops and implements calendar plans for mass sports events, ensures the safety of their holding;

Caspian
University

- provides control over the educational and training process in sections and sports clubs for the preparation of students
- registers and keeps records of records and sports achievements, forms national teams in sports of the School of Medicine and ensures their participation in sports competitions;
- contributes in every possible way to the development of amateur activity and self-government in the physical culture movement;
- makes a presentation to encourage students who have achieved high performance in their work: - engages members of a sports club, organizes and collects membership fees;
- conducts office work, in accordance with the established procedure, provides the relevant organizations with the necessary information about the development and state of physical culture and sports at the School of Medicine;
- makes work plans for 1 (one) year;
- the sports club periodically reports for its activities to the management of the CISM.

4. A sports club has the right to:

- within its competence to carry out the selection and placement of members of the circle;
- have a flag, an emblem, a sports uniform;
- to hold mass competitions, training camps;
- to make proposals to the Student Council on the encouragement of physical culture assets, students, for high performance in the development of mass physical culture, recreation and sports work, awards diplomas, memorable gifts in accordance with the established procedure; - to submit proposals to the management on organizational and technical measures.

5. Responsibility

5.1 The Sports Club is responsible for the effectiveness of sports activities at the School of Medicine and in dormitories, timely provision and quality of documentation, timely implementation of sports training activities for university students.

6. Relationships with other divisions of the CISM.

6.1 The Sports Club interacts with all structural divisions of the CISM.

6.2 The Sports Club interacts with the Department for Work with students of the CISM and the Committee of the Student Council of the CISM for the Development of Sports.